Panel of Alums to Speak to IB Society

Last month IBS hosted an evening with alumni, where their experiences of life after IB and how to get a job with an IB degree were shared and questions from current IB majors were fielded. On February 12 (Tues) at 6:00 p.m. in Sanford 112, IB alumni Paton Faletti, VP of Sales Operations for Maserati North America, and Lyle Gore, Manager of Communications & Marketing for Alantix Global Systems, will be with us for a similar forum. Please make every effort to attend this event.

IB Society Social: February 26 at 6 PM

Take an evening to meet with your fellow IB majors and diversify your cultural awareness by screening an international documentary film together in Sanford 112. Treats, popcorn and soda courtesy of IB Society!

Still time! Terry @ Oxford Program Still Accepting Applications

Dr. Lastraps, Department Head of Economics, will teach International Money & Banking. This course can count as an EXON or INTB course. In addition, you would take a tutorial under an Oxford Don and be the first group of students to spend the summer in the new UGA house in Oxford. (Go to www.uga.edu/oxford and click on scrapbook-UGA@Oxford Center to see the new facility.) Contact Dr. Kalpen Trivedi or Maggie Perry at 706-542-2244 or visit their office at 326A Park Hall to indicate your interest.

Heads Up, Terry Cup 2008

Each spring semester, IB Society sponsors the TERRY CUP co-ed softball tournament. Any Terry College organization may put together a team for a nominal fee. Funds raised are given to a chosen charity. This year's Terry Cup tournament will be held March 29 at the UGA intramural fields. Team registration has already begun. For more information and a registration form go to: www.terry.uga.edu/ib/ibs/terry\_cup.html.
