

e-Bulletin

April 2008

IB Graduates Recognition Luncheon: April 17, 2 PM

This year, in lieu of a dinner banquet, International Business Society and IB Programs will host a luncheon in honor of graduating seniors on Thursday, April 17, 2:00 p.m. at East-West Bistro on Broad St. There is no cost to graduating IB seniors or current IB Society members (included in dues). Others may pay $10.

We encourage all IB students, especially the graduates, to come and meet IB faculty/staff and to learn more about IB programs and the International Business Society. Please RSVP by 5:00 pm Friday, April 11, if you plan to attend.

Terry Cup Softball Tournament: Cancelled

This year's Terry Cup tournament to be held March 29 at the UGA intramural fields was cancelled due to an insufficient number applications. We apologize if a cancellation notice did not reach all interested parties in a timely, effective manner.

Terry Study Abroad Program Orientations & Deadlines

For those of you participating in one of this year's international Maymester programs, these are some important dates to remember:

Globalization & IT in China

Orientation, April 28, 5 PM, SAN314

Terry Travels to Eastern Europe

April 15, fourth installment due

Orientation, April 21, 5 PM, SAN314

Terry @ Oxford Program Still Accepting Applications

Dr. Lastraps, Department Head of Economics, will teach International Money & Banking. This course can count as an ECON or INTB course. In addition, participants will have a tutorial by an Oxford Don and be among the first students to spend the summer in the new UGA house in Oxford. (Go to www.uga.edu/oxford and click on scrapbook-UGA@Oxford Center to see the new facility.) Contact Dr. Kalpen Trivedi or Maggie Perry at 706-542-2244 or visit their office at 326A Park Hall to indicate your interest as soon as possible.

Dr. Mark Dawkins Assumes Oversight of IB Major

Beginning this month, following the retirement of Mel Crask, Dr. Mark Dawkins assumes the position of Associate Dean of Academic Programs at Terry College, overseeing among others the IB major. We look forward to his leadership and support.

Editor: Holly Alderman, alderman@uga.edu