

International Business Programs at Terry College of Business

MBA TRAVELS TO COSTA RICA

This study abroad program takes students to multiple cities in Costa Rica. Students experience the unique cultures and business perspectives of each distinct location. This program will begin with preparatory classes on the UGA campus (usually 1 in Athens and 1 in Gwinnett) followed by 10 days of travel abroad with the professor. Classroom time will be scheduled in each destination so that students can discuss and synthesize course concepts with firsthand experience.

Destination:

San Jose, Manuel Antonio & St. Elena de Monverde, Costa Rica

Program Dates:

March 7-15, 2009

Course Credit:

INTB 7100 -- Special Topics in International Business (3 credits)

Professor:

Dr. Mark Dawkins

Cost:

Approximately $1525 includes lodging with breakfast, some other meals, local transportation and entrance fees for scheduled activities, in-country transfers between cities, study abroad insurance, travel visa if needed, and a pre-departure orientation. Additionally (not included), students need to purchase international airfare (a group rate will be available) and tuition, and budget for additional meals, internet/phone calls, laundry, misc. transportation (free time), and souvenirs.
